

LEADing People includes 2 x interactive virtual workshops delivered by Nina Mapson Bone

Teamwork Makes the Dream Work

Great teamwork depends on us all being our best selves. Our job as leaders is to help our staff reach their full potential but, at times, this is easier said than done.

In this session, we discuss this topic and cover the following areas:

- The single biggest issue causing problems in teams today.
- The simplest and effective way of tackling difficult conversations.
- Personality styles and traits, how to identify and manage them.
- Putting your team strengths to work.
- Positive steps to take your team from good to great.
- Packed full of practical tips and activities this workshop is an essential tool for anyone leading a team.

Motivating And Retaining Your People

Leadership Skills for a Hybrid Workplace

How do you look after your people and productivity to ensure smooth operations in the new normal.

In this session, we discuss this topic and cover the following areas:

- The importance of wellbeing for increased productivity.
- How and why your leadership style may need to alter.
- How to adapt the business to new ways of working.
- The key to emotional intelligence and non-verbal cues.
- Hiring the right people for your team.
- Measuring productivity - hours vs outcome models.
- The key components of Meaningful Work for your team.
- Packed full of practical tools and measures to implement within your organisation this is a valuable workshop for anyone managing a team.

About Nina Mapson Bone

MANAGING DIRECTOR, BEAUMONT PEOPLE

Nina Mapson Bone is the Managing Director of Beaumont People, a specialised recruitment business that truly believes in “placing people first”. She is also President of the RCSA, the Recruitment Consulting and Staffing Association of Australia and New Zealand and she is Chair of the Development Committee for the NORTH Foundation, a charity that supports innovation in health research and patient care. She is also a notable keynote speaker, workshop facilitator regular contributor to news articles and TV shows.

Nina helps business leaders with their people problems and delights in bringing talented people together to drive value, build a vision and realise opportunities.

With extensive leadership experience, she has built and restructured high-performing teams with a focus on talent attraction and retention.

As a non-executive director and managing director, Nina understands the challenges and complexities of driving growth and ensuring a customer-first approach in large, diverse businesses that have multiple service lines.

If you have a business problem, complex tactical challenges with your employees or organisational structure, you can be guaranteed that Nina has helped others navigate through similar issues.

Nina has an MA (Hons), is a Fellow for the RCSA (Recruitment Consulting and Staffing Association) and is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.