- 5.10. Marketing purposes which may include contacting you by email, telephone, news and offers on Our products and services.

Under GDPR we will ensure that your personal data is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently, without adversely affecting your rights.

6. FINANCIAL AND CREDIT CARD DETAILS

We do not receive or store your credit card details. Credit card payments are handled by an external secure processor in accordance with their data security policies.

We receive limited information from our processor for us to tie up your payment with your invoice.

If you pay us by BACS or direct transfer, we know only what the bank tells us, which is usually the name of the person who paid us and how much and the reference number.

7. DATA SHARING – 3RD PARTIES

We do not sell or exchange your personal data with organisations who may want to sell you something or use your data for research or other purposes.

7.1. Platforms

We keep a list of the software platforms we use to run our business. If you would like a list of all the platforms we use, please email The Data Controller listed above.

7.2. People

We have an outsourced support team for our own business which may include Virtual Assistants, Web Designers, IT support, Sales and Marketing, Accounting and more. They have limited access to your data, where the service they provide to us means they need it.

For example, if our IT support wants to check the functionality of a laptop or back up, they may need temporary access to information that may include something about you.

For example, if we invoice you, our Accountant needs to process the information in the invoice.

Your information/advice is held in the strictest confidence. Our team are all contracted to strict confidentiality clauses and have strict privacy policies in place.

8. WHERE IS YOUR DATA LOCATED?

Like most small businesses, we do not have any tailor-made software – we use mainstream packages for everything from our customer records, to email, to accounting.

This means that some of your data may be held in the EEA, and some may be held in services in the USA (with suitable data privacy shields) or elsewhere. We have picked mainstream suppliers with appropriate security standards.

9. RETENTION PERIODS

We only keep your data for as long as We need to in order to use it as described below, and/or for as long as We have your permission to keep it. In any event, your data will be deleted if you notify us via email, telephone or post.

We need to keep customer information long enough to satisfy HMRC and our insurers. We keep information on prospective customers long enough to make our sales enquiry system effective.

If you subscribed to a newsletter or updates list, you will remain on the list(s) you joined until you unsubscribe from that list.

10. YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to know what information we are collecting on you, and to amend it if it is inaccurate.

If you feel that for some reason we have information we should not be keeping, or it is out of date or otherwise wrong, please let us know and we will take appropriate action.

If you want to know what information we have about you, email us at the email address set out above and give us your name, email address(es) and we will happily do a search and let you know what information we hold on you and how we are using it/have used it.

You have a “right to be forgotten” - but that does have some legal limits to it. If you want us to remove information about you, let us know. If you have been a customer, we may not be able to remove all data as we will have to ensure that we can continue to comply with legal, accounting, taxation and our insurer’s requirements.

11. COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint about the way we are handling your information or how we have responded to a request for information or removal, you can take this up in the first instance by emailing us at the email address set out above.

If we can’t sort it out, the relevant supervisory authority for us is the Information Commissioner for the UK. You can contact them here.

12. COOKIES

For information about cookies and how we use them, we adhere to the industry standard for cookie policies which can be found at <https://automattic.com/cookies/>.
